“SCARECROW GLOW” ONLY AT TROY HISTORIC VILLAGE! WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2014 STARTING AT 6PM. THE PERFECT HALLOWEEN NIGHT OUT FOR ANYONE!

TROY, MI- Troy Historic Village is hosting “Scarecrow Glow”, a costume-optional party at the Village on Wednesday, October 22, 2014 from 6 pm to 9 pm. See the magic of the Village at night, and experience an evening of fall fun. Attendees will enjoy food and drinks from Ruth's Chris Steak House, Kona Grill, Granite City Food & Brewery, Northern Lakes - Seafood Restaurant, Achatz Pies, Fieldstone Winery, Mad Hatter Bistro, and ZOYO neighborhood yogurt, while listening to the sweet sounds of jazz and bluegrass music. Watch a nighttime blacksmithing demonstration, and make s'mores. Costumes, especially related to the “Alice in Wonderland” theme, are encouraged.

“And why you might ask, is the Historical Society holding such a wonderful party? The Caterpillar told me that all of the dollars they raise by selling tickets will support their good work and education programs at the Troy Historic Village. They also wish their members, friends and associates to have a most relaxed autumn evening, with lots of delicious things to eat and drink, time to visit with old friends, and meet new people.”

-Alice

Adults (21 and older) only.

Cost: $40 per person (before the event)

$50 per person at the door (night of the event)

($25 of ticket purchase is tax deductible)

Please RSVP at: 248.524.3570
