INTERVIEWEE RELEASE FORM ADDENDUM FOR ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW RECORDINGS

Restrictions on Access to Oral History Interview Materials

If you would like to place restrictions on how your oral history interview materials may be stored and used, please give us instructions below. We have supplied guidelines for common ways in which interviews are sometimes restricted. Please initial any categories of restrictions you would like to apply, if any.

Because of the internet, it is possible to make your oral history interview materials available to anyone in the world. If such wide access makes you uncomfortable, there are three ways you can control access to your oral history interview materials:

_____ Materials may be made available for research and such public programming as the Troy Historical Society or the Executive Director of the Troy Historic Village may determine. This means anyone could access your interview on the internet.

_____ Materials may be made accessible on the internet to the Troy Historical Society. This means only people formally associated with the Troy Historical Society or members of the public visiting Troy Historic Village can access your oral history interview on the internet.

_____ Materials may be made accessible to researchers at Troy Historic Village only. This means only people who work or volunteer for Troy Historic Village (or the Troy Historical Society) can access your oral history interview.

_____ After _____ years my oral history interview may be made accessible via the internet for the public. This means anyone on the internet could access your oral history after the number of years stated.
