

Watercolor Classes: “Essence of Summer” Select weekdays | 4:30-6:30pm | Ages 16 & up

Artist and art teacher Megan Swoyer guides students in using a variety of watercolor techniques to create colorful summer scenes. No experience is necessary, and all supplies will be provided!

Tuesday June 6: Summer at the Lake

Night Heron Scene Watercolorists will capture the beauty of a night heron as he wades in a lake, creating soft ripples. Time-permitting, we'll also paint a gorgeous water lily, pad, and bud, using wet-into-wet and wet-into-dry techniques.

Wednesday June 21: Summer Afield

Chicory and Fireweed Oh, how we love Michigan's naturalized plants as they pop come summertime in beautiful pinks and cornflower blues. We'll likely paint two small studies featuring these glorious wildflowers.

Wednesday July 19: Summer on the Deck

Pot of Geraniums We'll play with leaf techniques to capture the bloom and bud of this popular summer beauty. Painting a terra-cotta pot adds to the fun!

Wednesday July 26: Summer Sets Sail

Sailboats A soft background with distant trees melds into the gorgeous Straits of Mackinac for a pretty sailboat backdrop. We'll learn how to create a distant tree line, smooth water, and gradient skies in this fun class.

Wednesday August 2: Summer in a Vase

Cut Garden Flowers

All of August comes to life in a blue vase in this fun class where pinks and yellows star, with lots of green foliage. Composition elements will be the focus as well as form and shape.

Price: Troy Historical Society Member: $40/class or Non-Member: $45/class

Register at www.TroyHistoricVillage.org or 248-524-3570